Course Description

This session is the start of the application areas to leadership growth. This is a skill, an application that can take years to master and source of deep value for those who look to you for leadership, both at home as well as at work. As you think about this session, think about recent conversations you have had that were less than satisfactory and consider how “I” positions and self-responsibility can fortify your leadership.

Learning Objectives
At the end of this session, you will be able to:
- Cite the main characteristics of Self-Definition
- Recognize "I" Positions
- Identify methods of Self-Disclosure

¹Note that the proper reporting is dependent on the requirements of your state board of accountancy. (These requirements may address fields of study classifications and credit hours recognition.)
